204. The obligations to be performed by the Contractor are set out in Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. In the event any provision of Exhibit A conflicts with any provision of Part I or Part II of this Agreement, said Part I or Part II shall be controlling.

SECTION 3: INFORMATION TO BE FURNISHED TO THE CONTRACTOR

301. The City will provide the Contractor with all documents, data, and other materials in its possession appropriate to the obligations to be performed hereunder and in Exhibit A and will endeavor to secure materials or information from other sources requested by the Contractor for the purpose of carrying out obligations under this Agreement.

SECTION 4: TIME OF PERFORMANCE

401. The Contractor shall perform the obligations set forth in Section 2 of this Agreement at such times and in such sequence as set out in Exhibit A .

402. Subject to the early termination provisions below, the initial term of this Agreement will be the three (3) year period that commences on the Effective Date (the "Initial Term"); and such term will automatically renew thereafter for successive terms of one (1) year each, unless and until either party provides at least thirty (30) days advance written notice of non-renewal, in which case this Agreement shall terminate at the end of the then-current term.

403. Termination.

Either party may terminate this Agreement in its entirety, effective immediately upon written notice to the other party, if the other party has committed a breach of a material provision of this Agreement and has failed to cure the breach within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice of the breach given by the non-breaching party; provided, that Contractor shall not be required to give City any opportunity to cure any breach in the case of a Prohibited Act or thirbreach of the U.S. Government End User section, all of which are considered for all purposes to be material provisions of this Agreement. If, in the reasonable opinion of City or Contractor, the compliance by either party with the terms of this Agreement will be in violation of any law or regulation implemented or modified after the commencement of the Hyland Cloud Service provided pursuant to this Agreement, City or Contractor, as the case may be, may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice to the other party.

- (a) Notice of Change In Payment Terms. If Contractor provides written notice as described in 4.1 and 4.2 above, and Hyland and Customer fail to execute, within ninety (90) days from the date of such written notice, a mutually acceptable amendment to this Agreement, in accordance with Section 4.3, pursuant to which, among other things, Customer shall agree to pay applicable fees and charges relating to the Hyland Cloud Service directly to Hyland and Hyland shall agree to provide maintenance and technical support of the Hyland Cloud Service directly to Customer, then either party may terminate this Agreement upon ninety (90) days written notice to the other party.

404. Certain Effects or Consequences of Termination; Survival of Certain Provisions.

- (a) Generally. Immediately upon any termination or expiration of this Agreement, City shall cease any and all uses of the Hyland Cloud Service and Documentation. Any termination of this Agreement will not discharge or otherwise affect any pre-termination obligations of either party existing under this Agreement at the time of termination, including City's payment obligation of fees and charges accrued or due for any period or event occurring on or prior to the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement; and all liabilities which have accrued prior to the date of termination shall survive.

- (b) Survival of Certain Obligations. The provisions of this Agreement, which by their nature or express terms extend beyond the expiration or termination of this Agreement will survive and remain in effect until all obligations thereunder are satisfied. All disclaimers of warranties and limitations of liability set forth in this Agreement will survive any termination or non-renewal of this Agreement.

405. This Agreement shall remain in effect for the Initial Term, unless otherwise terminated by the parties hereto pursuant to Exhibit A.

406. Termination by the City for Non-Appropriation. The City may, at its option and without prejudice to any other remedy it may be entitled at law or equity, or elsewhere under this Agreement, terminate this Agreement in whole or in part, by giving prior written notice thereof to Contractor as soon as the City is made aware of the its non-appropriation of funds action, with the understanding that this Agreement shall cease upon the date specified in such notice (the "Notice Date"). The City shall equitably compensate Contractor in accordance with the terms of this Agreement for Contractor's performance of its obligations under this Agreement until and including the Notice Date. Contractor shall not, however, be entitled to lost or anticipated profits should the City choose to exercise this option to terminate. Notwithstanding the previous foregoing, the City agrees not to obtain any other goods, services, equipment, computer system or to obtain data processing services from any third party to perform substantially the same applications and/or functions as set forth in this Agreement for a period of at least one(1) year following a contract termination resulting from a nonappropriation of funds without first giving Contractor the option to reinstate this Agreement in whole or part.

407. Either party may terminate this Agreement in its entirety, effective immediately upon written notice to the other party, if the other party has committed a breach of a material provision of this Agreement and has failed to cure the breach within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice of the breach given by the non-breaching party; provided, that Contractor shall not be required to give City any opportunity to cure any breach in the case of a Prohibited Act or breach of the U.S. Government End User section, all of which are considered for all purposes to be material provisions of this Agreement.

408. If, in the reasonable opinion of City or Contractor, the compliance by either party with the terms of this Agreement will be in violation of any law or regulation implemented or modified after the commencement of the Hyland Cloud Service provided pursuant to this Agreement, City or Contractor, as the case may be, may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice to the other party.

409. Intentionally Blank.

410. Immediately upon any termination or expiration of this Agreement, City shall cease any and all uses of the Hyland Cloud Service and Documentation. Any termination of this Agreement will not discharge or otherwise affect any pre-termination obligations of either party existing under this Agreement at the time of termination, including City's payment obligation of fees and charges accrued or due for any period or event occurring on or prior to the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement; and all liabilities which have accrued prior to the date of termination shall survive.

411. The provisions of this Agreement, which by their nature or express terms extend beyond the expiration or termination of this Agreement will survive and remain in effect until all obligations thereunder are satisfied. All disclaimers of warranties and limitations of liability set forth in this Agreement will survive any termination or non-renewal of this Agreement.

412. Except in the case of termination by Contractor due to City breach of this Agreement, in the event of any other termination of this Agreement, both parties will reasonably cooperate and use their commercially reasonable efforts to provide for an orderly transition period that is designed to minimize the disruption to City's business operations. Accordingly, for a period of up to ninety (90) calendar days following such a termination (the "Transition Period"), and provided Customer pays all applicable Subscription Fees, Hosting Fees, and Consumption Fees for such Transition Period, Customer shall retain a license to use the Hosted Solution in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement while transitioning to another solution, and Contractor will continue to provide Hosting Services and Hosted Solution Support during such Transition Period.

701. This Agreement is subject to and incorporates the provisions attached hereto as City of New Haven Contract for Professional or Technical Services Part II, Terms and Conditions, Exhibit A, SaaS Security Attachment, Documentation and applicable Service Class Manual. 705. This Agreement incorporates all the understandings of the parties hereto as to the matters contained herein and supersedes any and all agreements reached by the parties prior to the execution of this Agreement, whether oral or written, as to such matters.

706. In the event that any term or provision of the Agreement is deemed by a court of competent jurisdiction to be overly broad in scope, duration or area of applicability, the court considering the same will have the power and is hereby authorized and directed to limit such scope, duration or area of applicability, or all of them, so that such term or provision is no longer overly broad and to enforce the same as so limited. Subject to the foregoing sentence, in the event any provision of the Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, such invalidity or unenforceability will attach only to such provision and will not affect or render invalid or unenforceable any other provision of the Agreement. .

707. Any waiver of the terms and conditions of this Agreement by either of the parties hereto shall not be construed to be a waiver of any other term or condition of this Agreement.

708. The headings used in this Agreement are for reference and convenience purposes only and shall not in any way limit or affect the meaning or interpretation of any of the terms hereof. 710. The parties to this Agreement recognize that a remedy at law for a breach of the provisions of this Agreement relating to confidential information and intellectual property rights will not be adequate for Contractor's protection and, accordingly, the parties shall have the right to obtain, in addition to any other relief and remedies available to it, specific performance or injunctive relief to enforce the provisions of this Agreement.

711. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, each party shall bear and pay its own expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

712. Force Majeure. No failure, delay or default in performance of any obligation of a party to the Agreement (except the payment of money) shall constitute a default or breach to the extent that such failure to perform, delay or default arises out of a cause, existing or future, beyond the control (including, but not limited to: action or inaction of governmental, civil or military authority; fire; strike, lockout or other labor dispute; flood; war; riot; theft; earthquake; natural disaster or acts of God; national emergencies; unavailability of materials or utilities; sabotage; viruses; or the act, negligence or default of the other party) and without negligence or willful misconduct of the party otherwise chargeable with failure, delay or default. The Agreement may only be modified by a written document signed by duly authorized representatives of the parties. The Agreement shall not be supplemented or modified by any course of performance, course of dealing or trade usage. City and Hyland specifically acknowledge and agree that any other terms varying from or adding to the terms of The Agreement, whether contained in any purchase order or other electronic, written or oral communication made from City to Hyland are rejected and shall be null and void and of no force or effect, unless expressly agreed to in writing by both parties. The Agreement will prevail over any conflicting stipulations contained or referenced in any other document.

714. Third Parties. Nothing herein expressed or implied is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give to any person or entity, other than the parties hereto, any rights or remedies by reason of the Agreement; provided, however, that third party suppliers of software products bundled with the Software are third party beneficiaries to the Agreement as it applies to their respective software products.
