

Annie Louis Boyd Biography

Annie Louis Boyd is a highly respected individual who has remained true to her beliefs and values and is known for her honest communication. She has come a long way from being a member of the Black Panthers and has made a significant impact in the City of New Haven, establishing a powerful legacy. Ms. Boyd has been actively involved in Community Services and has made remarkable contributions through her work as the former chair of Project MORE, a nonprofit organization dedicated to reintegrating previously incarcerated individuals. In 2015, she was appointed to the Community and Police Relations Task Force by Mayor Toni Harp and has served on various committees over the past four decades, including the New Haven Democratic Town Committee, the Board of the Community Action Agency, the Hill Development Corporation, and the Hill North Management Team.

Ms. Boyd's children and extended family members have also dedicated themselves to serving various communities through activities such as caring for children, sports, homes, mentoring, health and science, safety and beautification, sports and art, and housing. They have provided support and assistance to people coping with the loss of loved ones due to violence and crime and have played an integral role in the growth and development of the Hill Neighborhood. Annie Louis Boyd's compassionate nature makes her a source of joy, laughter, peace, and solutions.

We are honored to be associated with this exceptional family