

ON April 14th, 1997, Malik Jones was chased by East Haven police officer Flodquist from East Haven, through New Haven, to a place one block from his home. The officer ran up to Malik's car, smashed the window, and shot Malik several times, killing him.

Malik was unarmed and had committed no crime.

Malik's mother, Emma Jones, embarked on a lifelong mission to obtain justice for her son, and make sure this would never happen to any other person without some form of accountability. Emma led the fight for a statewide racial profiling law, a no-chase law, and a Civilian Review Board, all which were put in place.

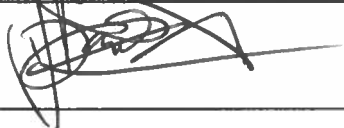

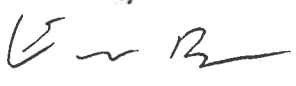

We would like to honor the incredible work that Ms. Emma has done to ensure that others don't suffer the same fate as her son, and honor Malik's life by naming the corner of Grand Ave. and Haven St. the Malik Jones Corner, so that it will be a permanent place to recognize the injustice that Malik and his family suffered due to police terror.

26 years later, and still no real justice for Malik or his family. We will never forget.

CITY STATUTE REQUIRES THAT A PETITION BE OBTAINED WHICH INCLUDES SIGNATURES OF AT LEAST 250 CITY RESIDENTS IN FAVOR OF THE PROPOSED NAMING, OF WHICH AT LEAST 2/3 (166) SHALL BE RESIDENTS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF THE PROPOSED SIGN LOCATION.

Malik's mother, Emma Jones, embarked on a lifelong mission to obtain justice for her son, and make sure this would never happen to any other person without some form of accountability. Emma led the fight for a statewide racial profiling law, a no-chase law, and a Civilian Review Board, all which were put in place.

We would like to honor the incredible work that Ms. Emma has done to ensure that others don't suffer the same fate as her son, and honor Malik's life by naming the corner of Grand Ave. and Haven St. the Malik Jones Corner, so that it will be a permanent place to recognize the injustice that Malik and his family suffered due to police terror.

26 years later, and still no real justice for Malik or his family. We will never forget.

CITY STATUTE REQUIRES THAT A PETITION BE OBTAINED WHICH INCLUDES SIGNATURES OF AT LEAST 250 CITY RESIDENTS IN FAVOR OF THE PROPOSED NAMING, OF WHICH AT LEAST 2/3 (166) SHALL BE RESIDENTS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF THE PROPOSED SIGN LOCATION.

PLEASE CONTACT ct@pslweb.org FOR FURTHER INFORMATION.

ON April 14th, 1997, Malik Jones was chased by East Haven police officer Flodquist from East Haven, through New Haven, to a place one block from his home. The officer ran up to Malik's car, smashed the window, and shot Malik several times, killing him.

Malik was unarmed and had committed no crime.

Malik's mother, Emma Jones, embarked on a lifelong mission to obtain justice for her son, and make sure this would never happen to any other person without some form of accountability.
