

I've been serving on this board for over 5 years, and enjoy having an input on making not only the authority a better Authority but making the overall City more organized to serve the tax paying citizens. I also like the idea that The Parking Authority generates revenue and provides a much needed service in New Haven.