Please explain why you are interested in serving on this board/commission?	I'm interested in this Board because I want to be part of the committment to helping the abandoned or abused animals that find their way to the animal shelter get the help they need and, hopefully, find new homes.
Why do you believe you are a good fit for this board/commission?	I believe I'm a good fit because I look for ways to compromise towards solutions to problems. And when I commit to something, I'm all in and will help as much as needed.
