I am 17 years old

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

I believe that every young person deserves a fair chance to succeed and fulfill their potential, regardless of their socioeconomic status or race. As a high school student passionate about addressing the achievement gap, recidivism, and gun violence in New Haven, I am eager to contribute my energy, dedication, and ideas to promote positive change in our community. Throughout my academic journey, I have become increasingly aware of the significant disparities that exist within our education and justice systems. Additionally, I am deeply concerned about the cycle of recidivism that affects individuals who have been involved in the criminal justice system, preventing them from successfully reintegrating into society and accessing opportunities for growth. Furthermore, the impact of gun violence on our community is an urgent issue that demands our attention and collaborative efforts. By continuing on the City Youth Commission, I hope to work with other dedicated members to develop comprehensive strategies that bridge the achievement gap and promote equitable access to education and resources for all youth. As an active member of the Commission's Research Committee, I am hoping to continue learning more about the needs of our city's youth, especially during such a politically turbulent time. I believe that investing in educational opportunities and support systems will positively impact the lives of young individuals and contribute to a thriving community. In addressing recidivism, I am eager to engage with community organizations, social services, and law enforcement agencies to create programs that facilitate successful reintegration and provide resources for at-risk individuals seeking a fresh start. Moreover, I am committed to collaborating with community leaders and organizations to promote gun violence prevention initiatives, including awareness campaigns, conflict resolution workshops, and advocating for sensible gun safety measures.

Why do you believe you would be a good fit for your selected board and commission(s)?

Throughout my academic journey, I have actively participated in various extracurricular activities, student organizations, New Haven specific democratic processes and community service projects. These experiences have instilled in me a deep sense of responsible citizenship. I possess excellent communication skills, both verbal and written, which have allowed me to effectively engage with diverse groups of people. As an articulate and empathetic individual, I believe I can effectively represent the concerns and interests of my fellow youth and be a proactive voice in advocating for the needs of our generation. In addition to my interpersonal skills, I am proactive and adept at researching and analyzing complex issues, which will enable me to contribute valuable insights to the Commission's discussions and decision-making processes. I have attached my resume, which further highlights my leadership experiences, involvement in extracurricular activities, and community service contributions. I am confident that these experiences have prepared me to make a meaningful impact, should I continue on the Youth Commission.

Do you have any time commitments that would prevent you from participating in board/commission meetings? Meeting times can be found by visiting newhavenct.gov/boards, but most are usually once a month for 1-2 hours.

I can make myself available in the evenings after school hours.

Demographics

Some boards and commissions require membership to be politically proportionate, per State Statute on minority party representation (CGS § 9-167a). What is your political affiliation on your voter registration?

◆ Public Policy Intern, Connecticut Conference of Municipalities Summer 2025

I will be working directly with the Director of Public Policy on research, analysis, and policy initiatives

◆ Mayor’s Office, New Haven, CT Summer 2024

I gained insights into how various City government divisions collaborate to support residents' well-being in areas like public safety, public health, violence prevention, safe streets, and social services. I applied my previous volunteer experience and service on the Youth Commission to ask informed questions of City staff and department heads. I also took the initiative to request meetings with the Mayor and the Director of the Youth and Recreation Department to share ideas on improving information and resource dissemination for youth, based on my past volunteer work and data I gathered. By the end of my internship, I was invited to join the Mayor’s Youth Leadership Council.

◆ The Institute Library Social Justice Reader January-June 2024

Created a short film highlighting how arts-based programs can positively impact youth in the juvenile justice system. It shows the transformative power of creative expression in helping them rehabilitate and aims to raise awareness of its benefits.
