I was a co-chair 18th ward for 12 years, am a member of the Knights distribute food to the home-bound. Work with the food bank in the 18th ward. Been on the aging commission ten years, five as a commissioner, have built a great working relationship with all board members. Attended meetings in Hartford as a delegate to fight for the seniors' needs, increased card value for the farmers market. In the last two years working with Tomi and forming a mutual -bond has increased memberships for all centers. Hold monthly meetings to discuss further ways to help the seniors in their daily living. Can often find me at the East Shore Center helping out wherever needed. Have been asked by many members not to leave at the end of my term. I enjoy working with the seniors, and believe I have been a great asset to this committee. Looking forward to achieving a lot more with the seniors.

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?
