FUNDING LEVEL AVAILABLE TO PROJECT: $235,535.00

FUNDING SOURCE: State of CT State Unit on Aging

PURPOSE OF PROGRAM: to provide daily and extended day programs for the three senior centers in New Haven.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF CITY'S PROPOSAL: The allocated funds will allow this project to establish opportunities to provide more equitable programs and services for the three City of New Haven Senior Centers. This will be done through bilingual communication techniques, collaboration with community partners to address the disparities among this population specific to implementation of learning courses, educational training, culturally sensitive programs and sustainable ways to continue community partnerships to provide ongoing and expanding services. The City of New Haven operates three (3) senior centers year-round, Monday through Friday from 8:30AM through 4:00PM. These centers provide hot nutritious congregate meals, health and wellness activities, exercise programs such as, but not limited to line dancing, Tai Chi, yoga and Zumba, speakers, local trips to the movie theater, British Art Museum, New Haven Free Public Library, and educational and recreational outings such as Holiday Hill, the Big E and apple picking along with arts and crafts, games, computer and internet access and volunteer opportunities which is supported through the Agency on Aging.
