

Biography of Ms. Mabel L. Carroll

Born in 1938 on December 6th in North Carolina, Ms. Carroll moved to New Haven, CT in 1971 in search of a better life for her and her children. She is the proud mother of 5 children who immediately involved herself with volunteering at their schools and becoming a lunch aid for New Haven Public Schools. Through her public service, she was introduced to the Hill Health Center, now known as the Cornell Scott Hill Health Center where she was asked to serve on the Board and has done so for the past 50 plus years after joining in 1978. She is a retiree of the VA Hospital and soon following her retirement, she became active in her community and volunteers with Elm City Communities. She enjoys the Commission on Aging based on her passion for older persons and communicating with others.
