

PETITION TO NAME THE NORTHEAST CORNER OF CONGRESS AVENUE AND WEST STREET AS "BRIAN CLARK CORNER"

Petition Summary and Background	Mr. Brian Turner Clark was a U.S. Navy veteran, boxing coach, mentor, community advocate and a Hill resident whose life's work deeply impacted New Haven. Mr. Brian Clark was the longtime leader of Ring One Boxing, CT oldest continuously operating boxing gym, which he helped sustain often with his own money as a safe and supportive place for youth. Through Ring One, he developed national champions and standout fighters and ensured it operated under a mission to build character, discipline, and opportunity for young people. Mr. Clark was also known for his generosity, including giving bikes to local youth and hosting annual backpack and school supply giveaways. He is remembered for his kindness, youthful spirit, passion to help the Hill neighborhood and the legacy he leaves in the lives of the many people he coached and encouraged.
Action Petitioned for	We, the undersigned residents urge our leaders to act now to designate the north ^{south} northeast corner of Congress Avenue and West Street as " Brain Clark Corner " in perpetuity for his commitment, great contributions, and service to people in the Hill neighborhood, and the City of New Haven.
