

Lisa A. Jimenez
675 Townsend Ave. Unit 104
New Haven, CT 06512
(405) 740-4765

Lisa Jimenez is retired with 33 years of Civil Service employment, most recently at the West Haven Veterans Administration working as an outpatient Social Worker. She holds a license in MSW and currently pursuing a license as a LCSW. She is also a member of the National Association of Social Workers.

Her passion is treating everyone with respect while showering them with Southern charm. She enjoys daily walks at the beach searching for sea glass and attending church daily. She enjoys traveling with her husband, shopping and exercising.

Lisa's education extends with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Central State University in Edmond, OK. A master's degree from the University of Oklahoma in Human Relations and a second master's degree in Social Work from the University of Oklahoma.

Lisa is very involved in many volunteer efforts which include formerly Connecticut Hospice in Branford, St. Bernadette religious education teacher, and a member of the Ladies Auxiliary. She currently involved with Knights of Columbus monthly homeless meals, St. Pios Liturgical Committee, and serving as a church lector.

Lisa is honored to serve on the Elderly Commission as a voice and advocate for our elderly New Haven residents. She wants to ensure that our elderly is receiving the resources and services available to them to better their lives.