Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

I am honored to use my accounting skills to help the City Librarian and Library Board of Directors understand the financial issues of NHFPL. I am a Certified Public Accountant and enjoy being able to share my talents with the City by serving on the Library Board of Directors.

Why do you believe you would be a good fit for your selected board and commission(s)?

I have served on the Library Board of Directors since June 2020 and in the position of Treasurer since January 2021. I believe my contributions in service of the board of directors has been useful and essential. Continuity in this role is vital for consistency in the financial information provided to the board of directors.
