

Professional Bio – Anne Massaro

Anne Massaro has retired. I work some work from Yale. I did financial aid for the entirety of the Athletic Department. I was a Senior Administrative Assistant for Yale Undergraduate for 40 years. I went through Democracy School here in New Haven in 2006. Also, from the Civilian Police Academy in 2005. Having been married to a Police Detective (Detective Raymond DellaCanera who passed away 11 years ago) I know a lot about the inner working of the Police Department and the Fire Department

I have been incredibly active in government having been on the Deadly Taskforce in 2006 which our work led to the Police force the ability to carry tasers. Also, in my political life I have been a part of the Ward 18 DTC Committee for many years. Under the Harp Administration I served on the Civil Service Commission for over 10 years.

I feel I would make a fair commissioner and be even better than when I first started. I have only missed three meetings in the past and if selected I plan on being the best commissioner I can be.
