

Jackie Downing is the Director of Grantmaking and Nonprofit Support for The Community Foundation for Greater New Haven. She has been on the staff of The Community Foundation for more than ten years. She divides her time between supporting the competitive grantmaking process and strengthening nonprofits through capacity building programs, workshops, giveGreater.org® and technical assistance. A graduate of Southern Connecticut State University, Jackie started her professional career at the New Haven Symphony Orchestra. She went on to be Development and Program Director at the Dixwell Community “Q” House, and Development Director at her alma mater Sacred Heart Academy. She spent four years the Deputy then Chief Administrative Officer for the Town of Hamden in the Amento administration, and five years in Fund Development at the Greater New Haven Community Loan Fund (now Capital for Change). Jackie has served on the Advisory Board of Sisters’ Journey, co-chaired the Hamden School Readiness Council and has served on the Board of Directors of the Hamden Land Conservation Trust and the Hamden Arts Commission. She volunteers with Hamden’s Whitney Players, the New Haven Ballet and is the Governance Chair and member of the City of New Haven’s Q House Advisory Board.
