Please explain why you are interested in serving on this board/commission?	I have served this past term on the CRB. I will serve for Newhallville until such time as another person wishes to serve. I have not missed a meeting and have reviewed most complaint files and body cam. I believe one must be logical and open minded to successfully review the cases. I also believe all cases should be reviewed . This will give members a greater perspective on police operations making comparing and evaluating behaviors both of the police and of the complainants more consistent.
