

CAREERS WITH LEAD EXPOSURE

Being exposed at work increases the risk of exposing your family members to lead. Lead can be taken home on your clothes, skin, nails, or hair, or if it is on your work supplies or in your car

LIST OF JOBS WITH

HIGH LEAD EXPOSURE

Abatement Working
Art Restoration
Auto Repair
Battery Manufacturing or Recycling
Bridge Development and Construction
Bridge or Highway Painting
Ceramics
Construction
Fishing (lead sinkers)

Furniture Refinishing
Glass Manufacturers
Lead Smelter Work
Plastic Manufacturers
Plumbers and Pipefitters
Radiator Repair
Ship Builders
Shooting Range Workers
Stained Glass Working

REMEMBER

PACE

Personal protective gear, follow OSHA regulations to protect yourself at your site

Always think twice before touching your face, hair, nose, and eyes
Change your clothes immediately and clean your hands using proper lead removal hygiene

Eat and drink in areas away from contaminated clothing or items