

Howie Blau
37 Florence Avenue
New Haven, CT 06512-3944
203.832.5050
howieblau@gmail.com

1973 - Present CEO Non-Profit Consulting Inc. - Advisor to Non-Profits

1970 - 2009 Howard Blau & Associates, Attorneys at Law. Founding Partner of a general practice. Trained and mentored new lawyers; Created and fostered a corporate culture of donated legal services;

2008 - 2018 Teaching Positions - East Haven Adult Learning Center, The DOE Fund, The Fortune Society, and Hour Children. Teacher for GED and TASC preparation - Math, English, Science, Social Studies. Created and implemented new High School Equivalency curriculum for formerly incarcerated women.

1973 - 2007 Faculty Positions - Hofstra University Business Law, CW Post MBA Program, Commercial Law Manatee Community College - Para Legal Studies, Florida Metropolitan University - Business Law and Constitutional Law

1973 - 2015

Legal Counsel to the Performing Arts - Founder and CEO. Conceived of and established this organization after years of providing pro bono legal counsel to performing artists, with mission of protecting their rights in housing cases, debt crises, social partnerships, and other legal issues.

Long Island Radio Broadcasters Association (LIRBA) - Counsel. Introduced the issue of diversity to raise women members to levels of officer and director. Shaped LIRBA as prototype for other non-profits, and served as ad hoc counsel to scores of organizations needing to incorporate the issue of diversity into their structure Learning Ally / Reading For the Blind and Dyslexic (Reader and Trainer). Trained new readers and read to high school teenagers with reading difficulties.

Other Experience: Radio Talk Show Host & Creator, "The People's Lawyer," 1985 - 1993

Education:

Hofstra University - B.A. English Literature - 1964
Brooklyn Law School - Juris Doctor - 1968